Complainants should use the following guidelines when reporting a suspected violation of the IDAF Code of Conduct (note that protests involving the conduct of competition or related matters should follow the protest procedures in the next section of this rule book). IDAF will recognize the experience and resources of the complainant, and understands that in the field of ethical conduct it can be difficult to precisely identify the nature of a violation or to obtain the evidence to prove the allegation.

IDAF regards suspected violations that may affect athlete safety and welfare, especially child safety and welfare, as particularly egregious. Such suspected violations shall be reported immediately regardless of the complainant's ability to follow all of the IDAF guidelines in this section. If the suspected violation is in conflict with the laws of the country or jurisdiction in which a competition is held, the complaint should be made directly and immediately to the appropriate government authorities (e.g., police).

3.9.4.2 Referral of complaint. Alleged infractions shall be referred to the IDAF Judicial Committee for resolution. If the alleged violation is in conflict with the laws of the country or jurisdiction in which a competition is held, IDAF shall also immediately refer the complaint to the appropriate government authorities (e.g., police).

3.9.4.3 Composition of the IDAF Judicial Committee. At IDAF sanctioned or approved sports competitions, the IDAF Judicial Committee shall be comprised of the president of IDAF, the president of the dwarf sports organization from the nation in which the competition is held, the competition director, or their designees. Each of these parties (the president of IDAF, the president of the dwarf sports organization from the nation in which the competition is held, and the competition director) shall each designate two alternate members of the IDAF Judicial Committee who shall serve if one of the primary committee members has a conflict of interest or if an appeal causes formation of a different IDAF Judicial Committee for a particular case. The IDAF president or her/his designee shall chair the committee.

3.9.4.4 Hearings and appeals

3.9.4.4.1 Assessment of complaint. The IDAF Judiciary Committee shall first determine if the complaint has merit. If yes, the committee shall proceed with a hearing. If no, the committee shall report the finding of "no merit" to the complainant.

3.9.4.4.2 Notification. The IDAF Judiciary Committee shall notify the complainant, respondent, and witnesses (as appropriate) that a hearing will be held about the complaint. The notice shall include the date, place, and time of the hearing, and shall request their participation. All parties shall be requested to confirm receipt of the notice.

procedures and of the complaint by the chair of the IDAF Judiciary Committee; (b) a statement from the complainant, including presentation of evidence in support of the complaint; (c) a statement from the respondent, including presentation of evidence that disconfirms the complaint; (d) continued discussion of the case moderated by the chair; (e) private deliberations by the IDAF Judiciary Committee; and (f) report of IDAF Judiciary Committee findings and verdict to the complainant and respondent. Only invited parties may participate in hearings, except that the complainant and respondent are each entitled to be represented at the hearing by a single representative of their choice.

3.9.4.4.4 Possible sanctions. Possible sanctions include, but are not limited to, a warning, a public reprimand, removal from one or more sports events or related activities, removal from an IDAF or competition position of authority/responsibility, suspension from participation in future IDAF sports competitions, and reparation.

3.9.4.4.5 False Reporting. If the complainant is found guilty of deliberately and falsely accusing the respondent, the IDAF Judiciary Committee may consider sanctions against the complainant.

3.9.4.5 Written record. All complaints, notices, records of hearings and appeals, and sanctions shall be recorded in writing and shall be submitted to the IDAF secretary to be entered into official IDAF records.

3.9.4.6 Confidentiality. Any person who is present during code of conduct hearings and appeals, including members of the IDAF Judicial Committee, shall be obliged to keep all information regarding a complaint confidential. This obligation of confidentiality will not prohibit IDAF from publishing the outcome of a hearing or appeal or from revealing such details that may be necessary to give a proper context and understanding of the decision reached.

Following the competition, the Protest Committee shall determine whether the athlete's competition results should stand.

3.10.3.3.2 Classification. Should an athlete's classification be changed during a competition, the athlete's performances in the competition shall be deleted. The athlete will be allowed to compete in her/his new classification if that competition has not yet taken place. Should an athlete's classification be changed before competition starts, the athlete will be transferred to their new classification whenever possible.

3.10.3.4 Appeals. Decisions of the Protest Committee are final and may not be appealed.

3.10.3.5 Confidentiality. Members of the Protest Committee shall be obliged to keep all information regarding a protest confidential. ## 3.11 SAFETY PROVISIONS

3.11.1 Emergency action plans. The competition host shall develop an emergency action plan for each sports venue. The following topics should be considered when developing the emergency action plan:
